ANSE Summer University 2019

Bridging: Connecting Worlds through Supervision and Coaching

ANSE and the Italian Association for Supervision and Coaching (BSC) are delighted to announce the International Summer University in Bolzano/Bozen, South Tyrol, Italy from 26th to 30th August 2019.

The main theme of the conference week will be “Bridging – connecting worlds through Supervision and Coaching”.

Bridging is understood in a sense of exploring the existential way to give shape to separation and connection as natural forces of life. Throughout history, these forces have been expressed in different ways. In today’s world, division and polarization seem to prevail. On the other hand, the need and longing to unify is a strongly felt exigency.

This Summer University will offer space to explore these ambivalences, effects and observations in our working field and share concepts of bridging, approaches of integration and experiences of connecting.

We are pleased to invite you to share your experience and knowledge to our special professional meeting space.

Call for workshops

The program is still open for your workshops (1,5h) – please send in your proposal until February 28th.

Teaching Supervision & Coaching - Inspiring Conference

Thanks to the fruitful cooperation with the DGSv, the first European conference ‘Teaching Supervision & Coaching’ in Frankfurt was an inspiring event. More than 50 training providers, trainers, teaching supervisors and responsible board members used this platform to create a network for all involved in advanced supervisory education of national organizations within the ANSE community in Europe.

With Dr. Michaela Judy’s Keynote on the ECVision project and Prof. Dr Stefan Busses Keynote on the excellent consultation, the conference offered the opportunity to discuss the quality of education in combination with the results of the ECVision project (e.g., the competence matrix of supervision and coaching) and the DGSv paper “Excellent consultation is based on excellent qualification”.

Working together opened up new perspectives and created ideas how to use the potential of cooperation and exchanging knowledge on a European level. Let us all support that working together and meet again for the next European conference.

The conference participants started to collect data of teachers and trainers who are willing to give input as a guest teacher/trainer. Thank you, Kaupo Saue, for this great initiative.

ANSE JOURNAL Edition 2

ANSE Journal Edition 2 “Politics and Social Responsibility, effect and influence in and through supervision/coaching” is out since October 2018.

We think and hope that the articles in this issue will stimulate reflection on one’s own attitude to the subject, collegial exchange and discussion in many places with different people.

General Assembly and Presidents’ Meeting

The ANSE board, the ANSE delegates and a number of presidents from European associations gathered for the 6th President Meeting and the 17th General Assembly of the now 20-year ANSE from October 26-28, 2018 in Budapest. The ANSE can look back on successful years: the ECVision Project was an important milestone in the European professionalization debate on supervision and coaching. The implementations run in many countries. A new project will provide information on how the European Competence Framework is used in training and how it serves as a basis for discussion in and for practice.

Heartfelt Congratulations to the New Members of ANSE

At the last General Assembly, two new full members and one associate member were elected to the ANSE Community. We are pleased to welcome the following countries or organizations in the ANSE.

Ukraine	Ukrainian Society Supervision and Coaching USSC (full membership)
Romania	Association for Supervision in Romania ASR (full membership)
France	Fédération des superviseurs professionnels FSP (associate membership)

ANSE Board 2018-2022

After thanking Sijtze de Roos, Éva Nemes, Barbara Baumann and Rolf Brüderlin from the last board for a huge Farewell Party in Budapest for their tremendous work, the election for a new board was scheduled for this year’s General Assembly.

We like to present ourselves and share our portfolios.
