On Sunday afternoon, after the last meeting (13:00 - 17:00) there is a great opportunity to visit Arvo Pärt Centre (<https://www.arvopart.ee/en/>). The Centre is situated in Laulasmaa, 35 kilometres from Tallinn, on a peninsula with magnificent natural surroundings—in a pine forest near the sea.

The Arvo Pärt Centre combines the composer's personal archive with an information and Music Centre. It is an open meeting place for all classic music lovers 😊.

Ticket price 10 - 12 euros (depending on the number of participants).

About the Centre – Arvo Pärt Centre - arvopart.ee

“What is the cost of a sound or a word? By thousands, they flow past our ears and have numbed our reception apparatus. To carefully consider each sound, word and act.” (Arvo Pärt)
There are few composers in music history that have created music using their original composition technique, or whose sound language is so unmistakably recognisable from the very first bars.
